

SKA 2010

The SKA Project will hold a science and engineering meeting from 2010 March 22–25 at the University of Manchester, Manchester, UK. This meeting is intended to be in the spirit of previous SKA science and engineering meetings, which were influential in shaping the direction of the SKA. Now that the SKA has entered the system design phase, this meeting will have a greater focus on system and engineering decisions, and their impact on the scientific observations to be conducted by the SKA.

Session Topics

We invite papers on the following SKA science or engineering topics, particularly those that emphasize the impact on the scientific observations to be conducted by the SKA or that take a system engineering approach to the design of the telescope:

- Science with the SKA
- Receptor Engineering
- Signal Transport, Signal Processing, Software, and Data Management
- SKA Configuration and Operations
